

As a freedom loving American I believe laws that govern our every day lives, along with the people responsible for enacting those laws, should be kept as "close to the People" as possible. In other word local laws should take precedence over state laws and state laws should take precedence over federal laws. I believe this system of governmental accountability presents the public with the most responsive, and democratic, form of government.